

Zadanie 1.

- 1.1. Good morning class! You all did very well in the test and I know that you're working very hard. Well done to all of you! Now, as you know from the letter we sent home to your parents, the end-of-the-year party will be next Friday and I'm sure you are looking forward to it. We're asking all of you to bring some snacks and the school will provide the drinks, prizes, and the games.
- 1.2. A: Hi, Sara. Do you want to play tennis this afternoon?
B: I'm sorry, Chris. I have a doctor's appointment.
A: Maybe we can go to the cinema instead.
B: I'm not sure. If the doctor is busy, we won't make it on time.
A: Okay, maybe next time.
B: Or... maybe we can have something to eat after my appointment.
A: That sounds good. Text me and I'll meet you outside the doctor's office.
- 1.3. Jenna: Hi, Sue. This is Jenna. How was your shopping trip yesterday? Did you find what you wanted in the new clothes shop? Anyway, I just left my mum's place and I'm on my way to Laura's house. Oh, it's my stop, so I gotta go. I'll call you later in the evening to talk about the concert Friday night. You'll love that band!
- 1.4. A: Hi, Diana. How was your trip to Paris?
B: Fantastic! I loved it but I had too much work and didn't have enough time to see all the things I wanted to.
A: Well, at least you get to travel and see all these wonderful places. I'd love to have your job. Where are you off to next?
B: Believe it or not, I have to go to New York to meet an Italian artist.
A: Oh, lucky you! Can I come?
- 1.5. Woman: Lucy, it's Mum. I had to go and collect your brother from the station. He needs my help with his luggage. Your dinner is in the fridge. You could put it in the oven, but the microwave is quicker. About 12 minutes should be enough. Oh, and your friend Sandra has just called to say thank you for your help with her project. See you later.

Zadanie 2.

- 2.1. At first, I used the Internet to look up information in a dictionary or an encyclopaedia, just for my own pleasure, you know? I spent hours just surfing for no real reason. I googled almost anything that came to my mind. I think it was like a game in a way. Then I realised I wasn't doing anything other than sitting in front of my computer and I started getting a bit worried. Now I don't go online as often as I did in the past.

- 2.2. I spend too much time online – I know that. The first thing I do in the morning is to check my email. After school, I go online to chat with friends or read my horoscope and things like that. In the evening, I always have my smartphone on so I can receive messages or chat. To be honest, I've tried to spend less time online but without success. I don't know why, but I feel I must always be connected!
- 2.3. I think the Internet is a great tool. With all the social networks people can be in touch all the time and that is truly fantastic. I mean, I've even got Internet on my mobile phone, but I use it to do my homework or to find necessary information, not just to connect with friends. Most teenagers spend all their time playing games or chatting online. I just don't understand how some people 'simply can't live without it.'
- 2.4. I've actually stopped using the Internet now except at the weekends. I had a bit of a problem and was doing very badly at school. But it's not all my fault, you know? My parents didn't want me going out too much so I spent a lot of evenings in my bedroom. When I got the Internet, it was great because I could chat with my friends. It was cheaper and better than sending text messages or talking on the phone. I spent hours and hours chatting online instead of studying.

Zadanie 3.

- A: Who's going to take care of the plants while we're on holiday?
B: We could ask Mrs Smith, I suppose.
A: Yes, OK. What about the cat, though?
B: Well, we can forget about Mrs Smith for that! You know she hates cats. I can check with Bob next door. He'll be happy to come and feed her.
A: Right. How many tins of cat food do we need?
B: I'll get ten from the supermarket tomorrow.
A: That won't be enough. Make it fifteen.
B: All right. What should we do about the newspapers?
A: I'll tell the newsagent we don't want any deliveries this week.
B: Fine. I hope we haven't forgotten anything.

Wypowiedź pisemna (przykładowy tekst)

Hi everyone,

I'm spending this weekend with my family and it's great. We've come to see my grandparents. They've got a house in the mountains and it took us a very long time to get here by car because of the bad weather. It was really tiring.

Anyway, I'm out most of the time exploring the mountains with my brother. The place is really beautiful. There's a lot to see and photograph.

Unfortunately, there's not much to do in the evenings because my grandparents don't have a TV. I'm glad I have my laptop and my brother and I watch DVDs. I'll upload my photos to show you when I return, because the internet connection here is very slow.

How is your weekend going?
