

HAPPY NEW YEAR

1 Read and match.

New Year's News!

PORTUGUESE NEW YEAR

People in Portugal eat twelve raisins as the clock strikes twelve on New Year's Eve. This is for twelve happy months in the coming year.

Feliz Ano Novo!

FILIPINO NEW YEAR

In the Philippines, everything at New Year is round like coins. This is to wish that the New Year brings people lots of money! They eat round food like apples, oranges and nuts, and they wear clothes with dots or circles on them!

Manigong
Bagong
Taon!

SCOTTISH NEW YEAR

The Scottish New Year is called Hogmanay. Special foods at this time of year are cheese, bread and shortbread (a kind of biscuit). The person most welcome on New Year's morning is a tall, dark man – this brings good luck to the house!

Happy New Year!

COLOMBIAN NEW YEAR

In Colombia, people carry their suitcases around with them on New Year's Day. They believe that this gives them the chance to travel a lot in the coming year!

Feliz Año Nuevo!

- 1 On New Year's Eve, people in Portugal
 - 2 The twelve raisins are
 - 3 On New Year's Eve, people in Scotland
 - 4 The person most welcome on New Year's morning is
 - 5 In the Philippines, everything at New Year's
 - 6 They wear
 - 7 On New Year's Day in Colombia, people
 - 8 They hope
- a eat shortbread.
 - b a tall, dark man.
 - c for twelve happy months.
 - d eat twelve raisins.
 - e to travel a lot in the coming year.
 - f should be round.
 - g carry their suitcases with them.
 - h clothes with dots or circles.